

The Itinerary: World Wetland Day Birding Visit to Anawilundawa Wetland

DAY1: Saturday, February 1st
06.00hrs	Leave Colombo campus
08.30hrs	Birding at Chilaw sand spits
10.00hrs	Stop for breakfast
12.00hrs	Lunch at Sri Shan guest house
15.00hrs	Birding at Mundal lagoon
18.00hrs	Back to the guest house
19.30hrs	Bird list & dinner
DAY2: Sunday, February 2nd
06.00hrs	Leave hotel to Anaivillundawa Wetland for birding
09.00hrs	Come back for breakfast
09.45hrs	Leave to Nawadankulama tank for birding
11.45hrs	Come back to hotel and lunch
15.00hrs	Leave hotel to come back to Colombo if time permits Birding at Munneswaram Tank
19.00hrs	Reach Colombo campus

Total cost estimate Rs.3000/= with basic accomadation and food : includes lunch, dinner on first day ,bed tea, breakfast, lunch on second day and transport (EXCLUDES breakfast, on first day)
For further information Kusum Fernando 0777772716, 0712289022

World Wetland Day Birding Visit

Anawilundawa Wetland

Photo Courtesy - Anura Jayasekara

01st and 02nd of February

With aim of celebrating World Wetland Day – 02nd of February, FOGSL arranged a 2 day Field visit to Anawilundawa Ramsar Wetland. (Birding will also be done on Nawadankulama Tank, Sand spit at Chilaw, Mundalama lagoon)

Only limited number will be accommodated. Pay advance of Rs.1000 (non refundable) to reserve your place before 29 Jan (Total cost estimate Rs.3000)

Organized by the Field Ornithology Group of Sri Lanka (FOGSL) as part of MIGRANTWATCH 2013/14.
For more info on participation, Email migrantwatch.srilanka@gmail.com or call 0777772716/ 2592609/ 0712289022